

Total recording of everything on air and retention - just an added government tax, if we are politically incorrect - is this an infringement on free speech? If a station has a flagrant DJ or show, it will be well known in the community. One person complaining one person's displeasure aremed with an FCC hammer will restrict free speech and fear of being cutting-edge or creative.